

UNSW Enterprise Risk Criteria and Categories

Consequence Criteria

management oversight notification

Widespread research conditions
 withdrawal of research
 withdrawal of research
 withdrawal of research
 withdrawal of research
 withdrawal of research

Partial loss of a critical facility between 6mths to 1 year Loss of central teaching or research facilities for 3 terms Regulatory sanction / suspension of licence / accreditation conditions Loss of critical IT system for 1-2 terms Sensitive and personal data released to public Major project benefits are no longer viable / Critical operations compromised

Faculty Dean, VP or DVC termination
 Single work-related death or permanent disability
 Long term damage to the environment
 Ongoing disruptive Industrial action (> 1 month)
 Widespread Student and, or Staff body protest / outcry Community outcry and action / Staff performance across the University eroded

Financial loss, including teaching revenue, between $20M- $50M

International and widespread short-term (1 month) adverse media (including social media)
 Suspension or conditional Provider Status
 Loss of standing in the Australasian Research and Academic Community visible to global partners

Investigation by ACNC, ATO, ANSTO or AONSW

Risk Categories

Risk categories are used to analyse and consolidate risk information by categorising them by the source of risk. They do not provide the level of detail required to understand the nature of risk. It is for this reason they are not rated.

Risk Category	Includes risks related to	Risk Category	Includes risks related to Strategic

Table 2 Priority for Treating Group Level Risk (Risk Response Criteria & related protocol)