Assessment Overview

Hurdle Task: You must successfully complete your second external placement for a total of 1000 hours of placement (with 400 hours of direct client activities), and submit all associated documentation and logs to the placement coordinator. The Course Convenor will review relevant placement documents and/or consult with the external placement coordinator. This is a course requirement; if a placement is marked as an "unsuccessful completion", the Program Director has the discretion to fail the student in the course and implement a remedial plan. A second failure can result in termination of the student's program.

Academic Honesty and Plagarism

Referencing is a way of acknowledging the sources of information that you use to research your assignments. You need to provide a reference whenever you draw on someone else's words, ideas or research. Not referencing other people's work can constitute plagiarism.
Further information about referencing styles can be located at https://student.unsw.edu.au/referencing

Academic integrity is fundamental to success at university. Academic integrity can be defined as a commitment to six fundamental values in academic pursuits: honesty, trust, fairness, respect, responsibility and courage. At UNSW, this means that your work must be your own, and others' ideas should be appropriately acknowledged. If you don't follow these rules, plagiarism may be detected in your work.
Further information about academic integrity, plagiarism and the use of AI in assessments can be located at:

The Student Conduct and Integrity Unit provides further resources to assist you to understand your conduct obligations as a student: https://student.unsw.edu.au/conduct

Submission of Assessment Tasks

Penalty for Late Submissions
UNSW has a standard late submission penalty of:

- 5% per day,
- for all assessments where a penalty applies,
- capped at five days (120 hours) from the assessment deadline, after which a student cannot submit an assessment, and
- no permitted variation.

Any variations to the above will be explicitly stated in the Course Outline for a given course for assessment task

Students are expected to manage t

Important note: UNSW has a "f t to sit/submit" rule, which means that if you sit an exam or submit a piece of assessment, you are declaring yourself f t g   o   o
